

It has been wonderful to be in your own home since Steve Carter, started the "no call" policy to stop phone soliciting. The phone calls we received all day and evening before this policy went into effect were more than annoying, especially for senior citizens. Please do not start the marketing calling up again.